FOCH PROGRAM IS ARRANGED.

Ministers' Objections Are Met by Committee.

Hour for Parade Changed as Compromise.

Pasadena Assured Visit of Allies' Leader.

The misunderstandings between the Ministerial Union and the general civic committee in charge of the celebration, held by Bishop in honor of Marshal Foch were amicably settled yesterday by the transposition of two events in the program, the problem was solved, resulting in the cancellation of all concerned. The reception at 2122 West Adams street will precede the parade and demonstration at Exposition Park.

Pasadena has been definitely assured that the distinguished guest will reach the Colorado-street bridge not later than 4:30 p.m., even though it shall become necessary to eliminate the proposed visit to the Lasky studio.

APPEAL DENIED.
An appeal made by representatives of the French Hospital that the program include a visit to that institution had to be refused, as there are already events to be crowded into the six hours which will call for stop-watch promptness to admit of fulfillment.

The meeting of the executive committee was held in the directors' room of the United States National Bank at 3:30 p.m. yesterday. No members of the Ministerial Union were present, as the program finally adopted had been tentatively agreed to as a satisfactory compromise prior to the meeting.

DAYS' ITINERARY.
The schedule of Marshal Foch's visit is as follows:

10:00 a.m. Arrival Southern Pacific depot.
10:15 a.m. Departure for St. Vibiana's Cathedral, where a private mass will be said by Bishop Cantwell, attended by an honorary guard of the Knights of Columbus.
11:30 a.m. Departure from Cathedral.
11:45 a.m. Arrival at 3522 West Adams street for reception to 7500 members of the American Legion, 300 disabled ex-service men and citizens of the community who will be present by invitation.
12:30 p.m. Departure for head of parade at Washington and Figueroa street.

AT EXPOSITION PARK.
12:45 p.m. Arrival at Exposition Park, where forty-five minutes will be devoted to addresses of welcome and response by guest of honor, followed by reception of members of the French colony. Marshal Foch will then be driven three-quarters of the way around the race track in a procession of 40,000 school children assembled in the oval, and representatives of various military organizations lining the outer edge of the track.
2 p.m. Arrival at Ambassador for banquet to be attended by 1500 Legionnaires and 300 invited guests.
2:30 p.m. Departure from Ambassador for Lasky's studio.
4 p.m. Departure for Pasadena via Glendale and Eagle Rock.
4:30 p.m. Arrival at Colorado-street bridge and continuance down Orange Grove Boulevard to Columbia street, to Fair Oaks avenue and two blocks south to site of American Legion building, where Marshal Foch will dedicate cornerstone.
The special train will be taken either at Pasadena or at Raymond station, as near 5 p.m. as possible.

BUSY DAYS FOR CLERK.
Dominguez Starts Sending Out Many Thousand Notices.

City Clerk Dominguez Monday began the task of notifying several thousand property owners who have objected to the building of the proposed $2,800,000 Arroyo de la sacatela storm drain sewer system in the Wilshire and Hollywood districts that protests will be heard by the City Council at 10 a.m. Thursday, December 15. There are more than 27,000 property owners in the improvement district, which embraces sixteen square miles. The proposed sewer with laterals will be thirty-seven miles long.

UNION LEAGUE WINS MANY NEW MEMBERS.

At a special meeting of the membership committee of the Union League Club Monday night, Chairman Joseph Zuckerman announced that the fall campaign has been a big success, that several hundred new members have been welcomed, and that the total enrollment is expected soon to reach the 1500 mark. Secretary of the Interior Fall, who was scheduled to leave Washington for the Coast yesterday, has been invited to be the guest of the Union League while in Los Angeles, and to deliver an address to Los Angeles Republicans on "Today's Problems Along the Colorado River."

OFFICERS TO ATTEND.

Vice-Admiral to be Guest at Writers' Cramp.

Vice-Admiral Shoemaker, temporary commander of the Pacific Fleet, and about forty officers and their wives will attend the Writers' Cramp, the ball and entertainment of the Screenwriters' Guild of the Author's League to be held tomorrow at the Ambassador. The announcement was made last night by the committee. The admiral will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Reed. Mr. Reed formerly was commandant of the Mare Island navy yard.

WANT BETTER CAR SERVICE.

Beach Towns Air Grievance at Conference.

Pacific Electric Counsel is for Boost in Fare.

Spokesmen for Cities See Need of More Trains.

Problems of interurban traffic, in which residents of Long Beach, the harbor district and the inland towns of Orange county are interested, were given attention yesterday at the second of the series of conferences participated in by officials of the Pacific Electric, engineers of the State Railroad Commission and representatives of the communities served by the trolley company.

The sentiment of Long Beach and San Pedro citizens on the present rates and service of the transportation company received a thorough airing during the forenoon session. There seemed a well-defined belief that, inasmuch as traffic to and from the beach cities has increased five-fold in the past six years, and that fares of commuters have also been jumped, with an additional rise in prospect, while local service has not kept pace, the seaside communities are being forced to make up deficits of the transportation company on other lines of Southern California.

A city of 75,000, which anticipates a population exceeding the 100,000 mark within a few years, it was contended by City Attorney Hoodenpyl of Long Beach, should have street car service more nearly commensurate with its size. Chief Counsel Karp of the trolley company said the latter will be glad to build any new lines which can be operated to cover maintenance expenses, but he contended that a 6-cent fare is too low.

SEEK NEW DELAY FOR MRS. PEETE

But It Begins to Look as if She Will Go to San Quentin Soon.

The possibility that Mrs. Lottie Louise Peete, convicted of the murder of Jacob Charles Denton, will leave for San Quentin prison this week or early next week to begin a life term was indicated yesterday.

Henry G. Bodkin, of Ford & Bodkin, defense attorneys, had a conference yesterday with Judge Willis, who sentenced Mrs. Peete, relative to the possibility of filing a motion for a stay of execution of the sentence for ten days. It was stated after the conference that the court had indicated that he did not have jurisdiction in the case.

Mrs. Peete, it is understood, wanted the judgment held up until her husband, Richard C. Peete, and her daughter, Betty, might come here from Denver to see her before she leaves for the state prison.

The remittance from the state Supreme Court, committing Mrs. Peete, was received yesterday by Judge Willis.

LAST TRIBUTE IS PAID GEN. BOUTON.

Funeral services for General William B. Bouton, who died yesterday, were held at the funeral home of Stanton Post of the G.A.R., who had served with him in the Civil War. Flowers were sent by friends of later years covered the bronze casket and the chapel at the funeral home was filled with those who came to pay their respects.

Dr. Carl S. Patton, pastor of the First Congregational Church, conducted the funeral service in connection with Stanton Post of the G.A.R., C. H. Haskins, of the post, reviewed the general's war service as well as his life as a comrade for the past half century. Other members of the post also gave brief eulogies. Mrs. Edith McDonald sang a solo and led the G.A.R. choir in several hymns. J. A. Emswiler, Civil War trumpeter, sounded taps at the chapel and at Eaglewood Cemetery, where the body was placed in a mausoleum.

The honorary pallbearers were chosen from members of Stanton Post with an escort of honor from the American Legion. The honorary pallbearers were: C. H. Haskins, Charles W. Dwyer, Verhaum, J. A. Aubrey, W. S. Daubensack and J. S. Wilson. Six veterans of the World War, Sergt. Harcourt, Welsh, Sheehy, Cuning, Ward and Flowers, were the active pallbearers.

RAIL IS FORFEITED BY ACCUSED AUTOIST.

Failure of Alexander Steele, a business man, to appear in Justice Baird's court yesterday to answer to a charge of driving while intoxicated, resulted in his bail of $1000 being declared forfeited. It developed yesterday, according to information given to the court, that Steele was arrested on that charge on the day he was to have appeared in the superior court on a similar charge. The case was continued once before by Justice Baird because of the failure of the defendant to appear.

HOLLYWOOD MEN GO TO JAIL AT STUDIO.

Three hundred Hollywood business men went to jail last night, at the Christie Studio. Capt. Home of the Hollywood police division conducted them through thirty cells erected especially for their benefit, when the Hollywood business men's association gathered for a meeting. Virtually every star on the Christie lot helped with the entertainment.

Persons Enjoyed Anticipated in Many Homes.

ENTERTAINING SOCIETY.

ENTERTAINING SOCIETY.

For the past few days, the city has been filled with the spirit of Christmas. Many homes have been transformed into festive scenes, and the air is filled with the sound of carols and the sight of decorated trees.

The city's social life has been particularly active, with many parties and gatherings taking place in homes and clubs. The spirit of giving and the joy of sharing with family and friends are evident in every corner of the city.

Many of the most interesting events have been held in the homes of the city's prominent families. These gatherings have provided an opportunity for friends and neighbors to come together and celebrate the season.

The city's public life has also been filled with festive activities. Many of the city's parks and public buildings have been decorated for the season, and a variety of events have been held to celebrate the holidays.

The spirit of Christmas is truly a time of joy and giving. It is a time when we can all come together and share in the happiness of the season. The city of Los Angeles is no exception, and its residents are enjoying the festive spirit in many ways.

As the year draws to a close, the city is filled with a sense of accomplishment and pride. The residents have worked hard throughout the year, and now they are enjoying the fruits of their labor. The festive spirit of Christmas is a perfect way to end the year on a high note.

The city's social life is expected to continue to be active throughout the season. Many more parties and gatherings are planned, and the residents are looking forward to celebrating the holidays with their loved ones.

Efficient Housekeeping

By Laura A. Kirkman

HARMONIOUS CHINA.
Two young housekeepers have written to ask me for an article on the choice of china. "I would like a handsome manogrammed set of china," reads one of these letters, "but am just married and we have hardly enough money for necessities." The other letter contains this question: "Our dining room is furnished in mission and our living room with stained willow furniture. Would a set of china with embossed gold handings be appropriate for our home?"

Now, I don't think one needs a knowledge of interior decoration to agree with me that showy china such as these two readers want is not for the simple home. A china that simply screams money should be left to palatial houses. What, then, is appropriate for the average young housekeeper who starts her married life in a cottage for two where economy is a most important consideration?

I can recommend some of the following wares:
Almost everybody is familiar with Sadji ware. It is of one tone (a cool refreshing green), whose color is found in nature. Other solid colors—yellow, olive, old blue and mauve—may also be found in oriental pottery, but these colors are perhaps better suited to the tea-tray than to the dining table. The green Sadji, however, may be used day in, day out on the home table for all meals, without grating on the nerves.

Canton china in the familiar willow pattern is also a well-known ware. It is inexpensive and may be replaced like the oriental wares mentioned above—when pieces are broken.

Still another oriental ware called Howa ware comes in an open pattern and this is simple and dignified for the little home; this ware comes in blue and white. At the present moment there is a reversion to primitive peasant pottery, which although too crude for use at dinner, is very effective on the luncheon or breakfast table—especially when used with coarse linen dories or runners that have the tones of the pottery repeated in a simple embroidered design. The young housekeeper should not hesitate to buy a piece of china which are simple in shape, color and design and which will harmonize with other pieces she has. For it is considered quite proper today to have odd pieces grouped together, if the general effect is pleasing.

Another drastic departure from the conventions of our forebears is the use of different wares of china for the various courses of a meal. Great-grandmother, who prided herself on her hundred-piece dinner set, would gasp with horror on our plain white soup plates, our patterned dinner plates, our cool green salad plates and our glass dessert plates—none of which wares match in any way!

Indeed, about the only set rule we must follow today in choosing our china is this: Make a choice that looks appropriate with the general interior of the home.

ZONING ORDINANCE IN EFFECT TONIGHT.
The new ordinance regulating the city for the purpose of regulating new building construction work takes effect at midnight tonight. Its provisions will apply on those districts which have been zoned and the maps of which have been approved by the City Council.

These district maps approved to date are for the Van Nuys, Hollywood, East Hollywood, Wilshire and Westlake districts.

Motoring Through Texas.
Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wallis and their son and daughter, Joseph Wallis and Miss Ethelyn and Ryle Wallis of South Harvard Boulevard, are enjoying a motor trip through Texas where they lived before coming to Los Angeles. They are now in Beaumont and are being extensively entertained. They will not be home until late in January. During their absence Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Hammond (Harvie Wallis) are occupying the Wallis residence.

Capt. and Mrs. Mel.
Capt. and Mrs. John Mel were home at a high tea on Sunday at "La Rambla," San Pedro, the home of Mrs. Mel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gaffey.

For Bride-Elect.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Menning gave a delightful family dinner-party in honor of Miss Charlotte Clemens of Springfield, Mo., whose engagement to their son, Christian Menning, was recently announced.

At Dancing Party.
Mrs. Edwin Francis Holmes was a hostess at a last evening at the supper-dance at Cocomat Grove. She had a company of eight. She and Col. Holmes returned last week and from Salt Lake City and San Francisco.

For Gov. and Mrs. Campbell.
Gov. and Mrs. Thomas Campbell of Arizona were guests of honor at a dinner-party at which Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bonner assembled a small company at the Ambassador.

At Golf Club.
Tomorrow at the Ambassador Golf Club, a small tea will entertain a small company at luncheon. Her guests will include Miss Katherine Melius, Miss Mary Browne, Mrs. Louise Williams, Mrs. Robert Hill and one or two others.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman.
Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hoffman were hosts at a supper party at the Ambassador last evening.

For Bride-Elect.
Miss Thelma Hardwick is to be home today at a small tea in honor of Miss Janice Wilson whose marriage to Edward Bell, Jr., is to take place tomorrow. There are to be twenty-eight guests and they will make sachets for the bride-elect's trousseau. Miss Hardwick is to be her bridesmaid.

Engagement Announced.
Tuesday evening at a supper party given by Miss Molly Peck, announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Jacob Fulton and Lieut. Edwin Potter Locke, Jr. Lieut. Locke is a graduate of West Point and is teaching in a southern university. The wedding will take place December 26. A dozen guests were present.

For Mrs. McIntyre.
Mrs. Harriet McIntyre of New York was honor guest at a bridge luncheon at which Mrs. Blanche B. Burmister entertained at the Los Angeles Country Club. The forty guests were seated at one big table in the Peacock room. Three baskets filled with chrysanthemums and fruits adorned the table while roses, violets, panicles and autumn foliage were scattered on the table.

No More Walks.
Capt. Kidd strode from the modern lumber yard with a volley of angry words at his grip on his cutlass. "Zounds!" he exclaimed to his lieutenant. "It is impossible for a man to be a pirate in these extraordinarily times. One can't even afford a plank!"—[Life.]

THE FALL AND WINTER ISSUE OF THE FASHION MAGAZINE IS NOW READY. It contains over 300 styles, several dressmaking lessons, etc., and is undoubtedly a book which every woman who wants to dress well and wants to see her family well dressed should have. Price 10c a copy.

FRIGARESS OF CHICKEN.
For the frigaress of chicken cut two spring chickens into quarters, and with their livers and gizzards, put them on to stew with one cup of water. Let them simmer until tender, but not until they fall to pieces. Mix a tablespoon of butter with a tablespoon of flour, a grating of nutmeg, a quarter of a teaspoon of salt and a quarter of a teaspoon of paprika. Stir this into the cooked chicken. Beat four eggs and warm with four tablespoons of the gravy from the chicken and add to the chicken; stir rapidly; do not boil, and when it starts to thicken, turn it to the serving dish. Dust with finely chopped parsley, and serve very hot.

The ham should be well-cured and not too fat. Place the ham in a large pot or wooden bucket and cover with half cold water and half cider (in the old days they used claret) and let stand overnight. In the morning drain the water and place the ham in a large pot; cover with half fresh cold water and cider and boil slowly for five hours.

Let cool in the water that the ham was boiled in. If you want to use it for cold boiled ham: should you want to serve a baked ham remove the skin. In the morning about three to four hours for a twelve- or fourteen-pound ham. Remove the skin. Stick whole cloves half an inch apart into the fat all around the edge of the ham. Spread the fat with a thick layer of half bread crumbs and half brown sugar. Place in a hot oven and bake with cover of cider-brown sauce every fifteen minutes for forty-five minutes.

FOR BAKED HAM.
This cook also has another way of preparing baked ham that he says is better than the above. Soak the ham in cider and water to which has been added one onion stuck with half a dozen cloves, two bay leaves, and two blades of mace. In the morning scrub the ham and cover with a thick dough made of half whole wheat flour, half white flour and water. This paste should completely encase the ham, which should then be set on a rack in a baking pan and baked in a hot oven for four hours. Remove the ham and pour in a cup of cider. Do this twice in one hour. Remove the crust and the skin and cover the fat with light brown sugar mixed with a little ground mace. Place in the oven to brown.

For a delicious clam dish this cook has two cups of milk with two cups of clam juice. In another pan mix four cups of rice and a cup of butter and stir in four tablespoons of flour; when this is well-blended and cooked, put in the hot milk and clam juice, stirring constantly until it thickens. When the sauce is smooth add two cups of clam juice and a cup of cream and one cup of grated cheese. Stir until the cheese is melted. Season with salt, paprika and minced parsley. Place squares of buttered toast on hot plates and pour over it the clam mixture. This is fine for dinner-suppers or winter lunches.

SALT SAUCE FOR HAM.
Salt sauce for baked ham should not be forgotten. Place in a saucepan one cup of gravy from the ham, one cup of cider, one cup of chopped seeded raisins, two tablespoons of grated lemon rind and half a teaspoon of Cayenne pepper. Reduce one-third and serve very hot. If Cayenne pepper is too sharp, use paprika.

Tomatoes and okra with green peppers makes one of the best vegetable dishes that we have had in some time. Place in a porcelain-lined stewpan (do not use iron as it will discolor the okra) two cups of finely-chopped tomatoes, or two cups of canned tomatoes, two cups of thinly-sliced tender okra and two green peppers chopped. Cook until the okra is tender. One is considered one of the most nourishing vegetables grown and is considered indispensable for soups by many Southern housekeepers.

Nearly all the cooks that we have known, have told us they have the original plus pudding recipe and Sam was no exception. Sam gave his recipe in cup and not in weight measurements and as we tasted it and found it good, will give it to our readers. Pour over two cups of seeded raisins, one cup of seedless raisins, one cup of chopped citron, one cup of chopped orange-peel, one cup of chopped apples and half a cup of chopped blanched almonds, one cup of cider and let stand overnight. Mix well two and a half cups of bread crumbs with two cups of finely-chopped nut, two cups of sifted flour, half a teaspoon of salt, and one tablespoon of ground nutmeg. Add to this mixture half a cup of sugar and half a cup of milk. Beat well two eggs and add with

WILL BUILD ROADWAY.
Dredging Company Underbid on Harbor Work Contract.

The Board of Harbor Commissioners yesterday awarded to the United Dredging Company of this city contract for building a roadway from Anaheim street to Long Beach channel at Los Angeles Harbor and for dredging the approaches to the steel bridge which the city is to build over the channel to connect the mainland with Terminal Island. The successful bidder offered to do the work for $17,840, the San Francisco Bridge Company bid $23,000 and the Los Angeles Dredging Company and P. W. Engle agreed to build the roadway and to do the dredging for a total of $71,875.

TWO BURGLARS GET SAN QUENTIN TERMS.
Two defendants who pleaded guilty of second-degree burglary were sentenced to San Quentin yesterday by Judge Willis G. Gaff. Marsh, who admitted burglarizing the room of Gus Pappas October 27, was sentenced to the prison for from one to five years. A similar sentence was given Gonzales Gutierrez for the burglary of the store of the Walter F. Robbins Company, Long Beach.

EXTEND TIME FOR PICTURE EXHIBIT.
The exhibition of paintings of California artists at the South-west Museum will be open until the middle of December. Popular demand has caused the extension. The exhibition was to have closed today.

After-Dinner Tricks

No. 14—A Broken Match Restored.

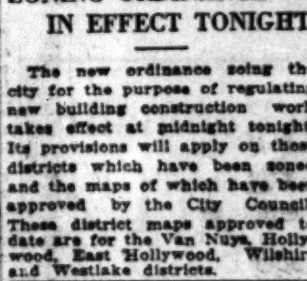

A match is wrapped in a handkerchief and then broken; opening the handkerchief the match drops out unbroken.

Another match is previously concealed in the hem of the handkerchief. It is this match that is broken through the folds of the cloth, hence the match is restored.

To repeat the trick, using and handkerchief, the performer holds the cloth to a spectator's ear, so that he can actually hear the match being broken, yet the restoration is again accomplished.

The match is not really broken. The performer merely snaps his finger nail with his thumb nail. The sound exactly resembles the breaking of a match, and will deceive the keenest observer.

The Daily Fun Hour.
BY HONOR WALSH.

STUDIO BONNIER.
The leader, called the Exhibitor, should have provided a number of blank cards of uniform size. These are handed to the players. As the exhibitor goes about distributing the cards, he whispers to each player the name of an animal. If there are many players the exhibitor should have a list of the animals prepared in advance, so that he can check off each animal's name when he has given it to a player. This prevents duplication. "Animals" is understood to include birds, fish, reptiles and insects, as well as quadrupeds and human beings. Each card should be numbered with the exhibitor's private catalogue number.

When every player has a card and is secretly possessed of the name of an animal, the exhibitor goes to the front and calls "Ready, draw!" Then each player tries to draw the animal, the name of which had been whispered to him by the exhibitor. A certain time is allowed for the drawing, at the end of which period the exhibitor calls "Ready, collect!" and he goes about collecting the cards, even if some of the drawings are not quite finished.

Then the cards are placed on exhibition and the fun begins in good earnest, as each player records his guess regarding the animal represented. The worse the drawing, the more difficult it is to determine the name of the animal intended. Score is kept and the player who has identified the largest number of animals wins the game.
